Dean Dillon

"There are songwriters, and then there are poets - artists who magically weave melodies and words into three-and-a-half-minute masterpieces. Dean Dillon is the latter. The Tennessee native hitchhiked to Nashville intent on carving his niche in country music and wound up being one of the most successful songwriters to ever set foot in Music City.the rest is history!" For more information about Dean, go to www.deandillon.com.

Song Dillon

Daughter of legendary singer songwriter Dean Dillon, Song Dillon is following close in her dad's footsteps. She wrote her first song with her Daddy and songwriter John Northrup when she was fifteen. However, her musical career didn't begin there. As a young child, she realized she could sing while watching and learning the music of Disney's The Little Mermaid and she hasn't stopped since!

Trent Willmon

Trent has six music videos on CMT and GAC: "Beer Man", "Dixie Rose Deluxe's", "Home Sweet Holiday Inn", "On Again Tonight", "BrokenIn", and "There Is A God". As a songwriter, Trent has written many songs cut by other artists, including: Brad Paisley, Eric Church, Little Big Town, Wade Hayes, Randy Houser, Kevin Fowler, Granger Smith, Johnny Cooper, Josh Grider, and many others. Find out more about Trent Willmon at www.trentwillmon.com.

Liz Rose

Liz Rose began professionally writing songs in the mid-1990's. One of her first cuts was "Elisabeth," recorded by Billy Gilman in 2001. In 2003, Gary Allan took Rose's "Songs About Rain" into the country Top 20. Other credits include "Teardrops on My Guitar," with Taylor Swift which helped Rose win a Songwriter of the Year award from SESAC in 2007. Read and listen to more about Liz at lizrosemusic.com/.

Painting "Live" at TETWP Auction

Bradley Chance Hayes

At 5, Bradley Chance Hays got his first pencil and paper set. At 6, his dad gave him his first rope. From then on, his rope and his pencil became his life — and still are 18 years later. Now, Hays is a professional calf roper and artist, painting primarily expressionistic pieces of horses. "It's kind of a wild duo," he said. "Art's been good to me. It's opened a lot of doors."
